C. E. BYRD HIGH SCHOOL UISIANA

ADMINISTRATION

Grover C. Koffman

B.A., M.A., and LL.D.

Principal

Our principal has endeared himself to the students of Byrd High School through his tireless efforts in our behalf and his sympathetic understanding of our problems. He has done much to give us a firm foundation in the fundamentals of education and to link the "City of Byrd" with the community in which we live. For our privilege and opportunities we are deeply grateful.

Francis L. Jones

B.S. and M.A.

Assistant Principal

Sponsor of the Senior Class—actively interested in the golf club and the Calendar Committee of the Student Council—these things, together with his energetic and understanding manner, have made Mr. Jones a valuable addition to Byrd High School.

Nellie V. Strother

B.A. and M.A.

Student Counselor

Miss Strother has co-ordinated the activities of the Student Council, making it an effective organization in the school. Under her guidance the Council has undertaken and completed many worthwhile activities. The needs of all students receive her sympathetic attention.

Queen Myra and Football Captain Paul with Susan Bronson, football bearer, and Patricia Dodson, crown bearer.

Myra Parkes reigned as Queen of the homecoming festivities on October 29. Graduates of former years were honored at assembly in the morning and at the game with Haynesville that night. Before the game the queen and her court were presented to the people and the queen was crowned by Mayor Clyde Fant. Senior football players led the procession on the field and the members of the court were escorted by other senior players. The Queen, Myra Parkes, entered on the arm of football captain Paul Winder. Other members of the court and their escorts were Mary Frances Collins, Maid of Honor, and Billy Harrington; Wanda Munsell, Football Sweetheart, and Bobby Cunningham; Edna Marie Whitmeyer and Wray Studstill; Betty Ann Hill and Frank Pernici; Mattie Lou Shaffer and John Trigg; Sue Wolfe and Roy Dean Owen.

Under the direction of Miss Betty Lawrence, art work for the Gusher was done by Adrienne Kalmbach, Nancy Gardner, Margaret Dalton, Randy Hensley, and Douglas Miller.

Carolyn Addison, Business Manager, and Anne Warren, Advertising Manager, collect deposits for the 1949 Gusher.

BUSINESS STAFF

The Business Staff has worked diligently throughout the year to finance the 1949 annual by selling advertisements and copies of the book. It is with a feeling of pride and gratification to the students and advertisers that we culminate our activities by distributing the Gusher.

BYRD HIGH LIFE

Superior was the rating received by the Byrd High Life at the second annual meeting of the Louisiana Press Clinic at Northwestern State College in Natchitoches. During last summer the publication was awarded first place by the National Scholastic Press Association. Now in the twenty-fifth year of publication, this eight page, five column, paper continues to bring news of class and extra-curricular activities, as well as

The Girls' Glee Club has had a very full and successful year under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Trickett. Presentations at school assemblies included a Cantata for Democracy with Mary Elise Smith as soloist and John Goff as narrator; Christmas music at the assembly preceding the holiday season; and songs for the Junior Talent Show.

In December the Glee Club participated with music groups from other schools in a Music Festival of Christmas music at the Municipal Auditorium.

For the first time this year the Glee Club has presented musical programs to homerooms and club meetings and has helped with the singing of community songs.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Trickett our vocal music department has played a very large part in the theme of school and community. Programs at the Municipal Auditorium and at civic clubs are but two of the many activities in which the A Cappella Choir has taken part. At the Masonic Temple the choir gave a concert which was one in a series to create interest in community music. A program of Yuletide music was presented at the Christmas assembly. During the year the choir gave several varied programs to stimulate interest of students in elementary schools. The Spring Concert with the band was the big event of the year.

Government Inspection

Each year the Byrd High School R. O. T. C. Unit is inspected by visiting officers of the Fourth Army District. Last year the Annual Formal Inspection was held on the thirteenth of May. The inspecting officers were Lt. Col. James N. Shigley, Inf.; Maj. Nicholas E. Sloan, Inf.; and Maj. Thomas A. Hume, F. A. The inspection covers the administration; government property, such as arms, equipment, and uniforms; program instruction; and the leadership ability of the cadets. The rating given our unit last year was superior. Byrd was one of the four schools in the Fourth Army District, consisting of Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas, and Louisiana, that was awarded the superior rating. On January 12, 1949, an informal inspection was conducted by the Fourth Army Louisiana Military District. The inspecting officers were Col. Douglas J. Page, F. A., and Col. O. R. Rhodes, Inf. Other inspections of the year were the Ordnance Inspection of Arms and Equipment by the Fourth Army Ordnance Inspection Team on the thirteenth of January; and the Informal Visitation for the purpose of orientation by Maj. General A. D. Bruce, Deputy Commander of the Fourth Army Area, on November 18, 1948.

Byrd 20—Sulphur 7

The Byrd Yellow Jackets raised the curtain on the 1948 gridiron season by downing the Sulphur Tornadoes before 4,000 fans in the Byrd Stadium. Coach Jack Rowan's team was sparked by fleet-footed Paul Winder who scored two touchdowns. It was late in the third period before the tight Jacket defense, spearheaded by Trigg and Rosenblath, allowed the Tornadoes a first down. Hubert Vincent, the outstanding player of the Sulphur team, scored the Tornadoes' only tally on an end run. John Childers added six more points on a hand-off from Winder that covered 38 yards. Worley converted 2 out of 3 for the Purple and Gold.

Byrd 32—Natchitoches 0

"Parents' Night" at Byrd was celebrated by trampling the Natchitoches Red Devils to give the Jackets their second consecutive win of the season. Murray, playing outstanding ball, blocked a Red Devil kick and received Winder's 17-yard pass in the end zone for the initial score of the evening. John Childers led the Byrd attack by crossing the goal line twice. Rachal and Pernici also accounted for Byrd tallies with fine runs. The entire Jacket forward wall played an inspired game and every member of the squad saw action.

Byrd 27 Bastrop 12

In the clash with the favored Bastrop Rams, the Jacket eleven completely dominated the play. Bennett Johnston, Paul Winder, and John Childers hit the pay dirt for the Purple and Gold with Johnston scoring twice. Keene and Johnson were standouts for the losers, each accounting for a touchdown. Playing a stellar defensive game for the Jackets was Rosenblath, while Murray blocked two kicks that resulted in Byrd tallies. Three out of four of Worley's conversions were good.

Byrd 34—Homer 0

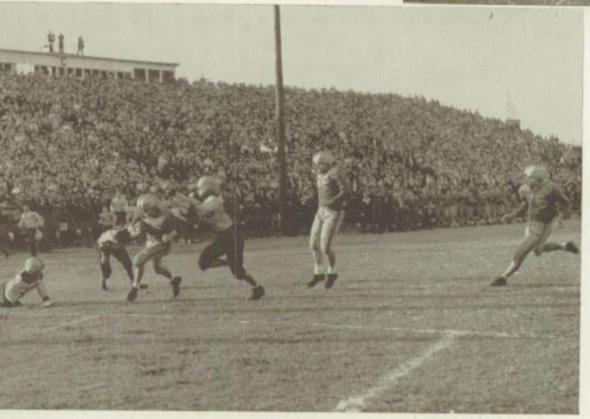

The Byrd line bottled up the Homer Pelicans as the Jacket backs ran wild to give them their fourth smashing victory of the season. John Childers led the scoring parade with three tallies while Rachal and Winder each added one. Worley split the uprights for four out of five. Spevens Rosenblath abruptly halted any of the Pelicans' attacks, allowing them a net of three first downs. Winder's passes to Murray and Green picked up considerable yardage for the Purple and Gold. Doggett and Tanner were outstanding for the losers. The game was dedicated to Miss Joe B. Warren, who retired from teaching at Byrd.

Every yard counts

Byrd 28—Bossier 0

Remaining the only undefeated and untied team in Shreveport's Prep School race, the Jackets smothered the Bossier Bearkats to give them their fifth straight victory of the season. Dan Barr started things rolling with a 70-yard touchdown run on a pass interception. Dickey Murray scored twice for Byrd on a pass and a blocked kick, while Childers added another. Worley's magic toe converted all four times for the Purple and Gold. The entire Jacket eleven, operating from the T formation, played outstanding ball.

Leading the highly favored Istrouma Indians through three quarters, the Jackets were nosed out by the slim margin of seven points. Childers sped around left end for the only Byrd tally early in the first quarter. This score seemed sufficient as the strong Jacket line held the Indians in check until the fourth quarter. A series of passes carried the ball to the Purple and Gold one-foot line where the forward wall held for three downs before Richard Cheek plunged over to tie the score. Midway in the fourth period Istrouma intercepted a Byrd aerial and later converted it into a touchdown on Courtney's 13-yard run. Winder turned in a brilliant showing as did Sneed and Anderson.

Byrd 12—Bolton 6

The Yellow Jackets, paced by halfback Willard Rachal, downed the Bolton Bears. The Bears took an early lead by taking advantage of a Byrd fumble on the opening kick-off as W. A. Rush scored after a series of plays. Rachal dashed through the Bolton team to deadlock the game 6-6. It was late in the fourth period before either team threatened again. Bennett Johnston paced his way to the one-yard line, where he fumbled into the end zone with John Trigg, Byrd guard, recovering for the final touchdown. Spevens Rosenblath held the Bears in check with his brilliant defensive play. This gave the Jackets a record of six wins for one defeat.

Led by hard-running Jackie Martin, the Haynesville Golden Tornado edged out the Yellow Jackets in their Homecoming Game by a slim two point margin. Martin hit pay dirt twice for the score in the first half. The Byrdmen came to life in the second half to overcome the Tornado's lead on a scoring plunge by Dan Barr and a touchdown pass from Galloway to Green. Worley was automatic after each. Beasley and Martin, altering runs, carried the ball to the Jacket one-yard line from which Beasley scored. In the last play of the game a safety was made for Byrd adding two more points. Linemen Sneed and Trigg turned in good performances, while Rachal and Johnston were standouts in the backfield.

Even stormy weather didn't keep one thousand faithful, rain-drenched fans from watching the Yellow Jackets defeat the Ruston Bearkats. The game was largely a punting duel between Earl Bain of Ruston and Bobby Spear of Byrd. Spear, in his usual form, averaged well over 40 yards per try. The Jackets' first touchdown came on an 80-yard drive sparked by Winder and Ezelle and ended when Johnston plunged from the 2-yard line. Byrd 14—Fair Park 0

Running roughshod over the Fair Park Indians in the annual Thanksgiving classic the Jackets captured the city title before sixteen thousand spectators. The tight Byrd defense held the Indians in check by allowing them only a net gain of 17 yards for the first half. John Childers and Paul Winder served as co-captains for the Purple and Gold and tallied both touchdowns. Childers scored on a 4-yard plunge. Winder received Galloway's pass and weaved through for the other score. A safety was scored late in the third quarter when the entire Jacket line smothered Crain behind the goal as he attempted to punt. Spear's brilliant punting kept the Jackets out of hot water several times. Green, Trigg, and Rosenblath were outstanding linemen, while Winder and Johnston handled the ball-carrying well.

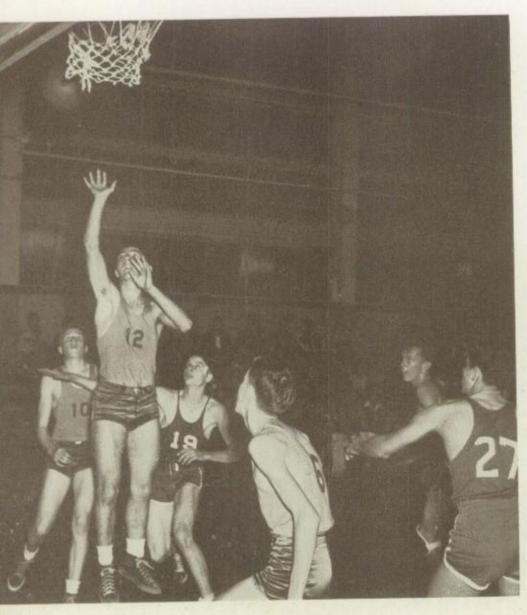

The 1948 Yellow Jacket B-Team

Coach Laughlin outlines a new play

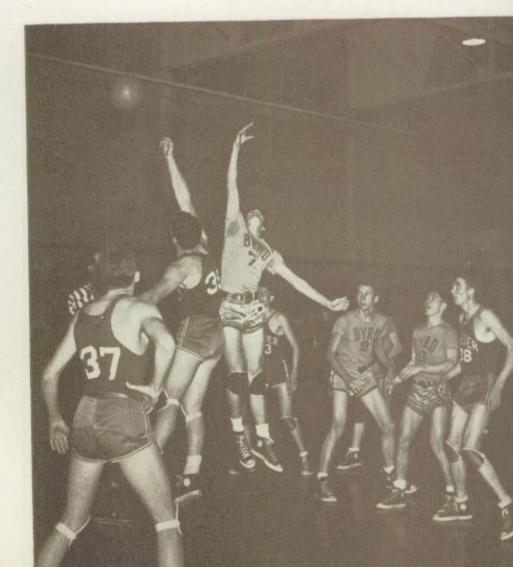

Coach John Laughlin's Cagers completed the 1948 basketball season with a record of 13 wins and 17 defeats. The squad was built around the two returning lettermen, Winder and Rosenblath, the rest of the squad being composed of members of last year's "B" team. The Jackets ended the season in fourth place in the North Louisiana Prep School League. They also attended four tournaments, going to the quarter-finals in the Minden and Byrd-Y tourneys. The Yellow Jackets met defeat at the District Tournament in Natchitoches to the Fair Park Indians. Revenge was gained in the City Play-offs at Centenary Gymnasium, as the Jackets downed the Indians in a thrilling overtime game to gain the right to play the Bossier Bearkats in the finals. Bossier triumphed to give Byrd runner-up in the City meet. This ended the Byrd's season.

The Yellow Jacket Baseball Team ended the 1948 season with 18 wins and 3 losses. In building up this record, the Jackets scored 132 runs against 104 for the opposition, an average of 6.2 runs per game against 4.1 for the opposition. Byrd lost only to Longview, Lake Charles, and Jesuits of New Orleans. Longview was defeated 3-2 in a return game, and the Jackets won three out of four games from Lake Charles. The Jackets lost to the Jesuits in the State playoff.

Bill Bruce, a left-hander, won 6, while losing one. John Trigg lost 2 and won 4. Bill Randolph and Sammy Booras chalked up 4 wins each against no losses.

The Jackets, under the direction of Coach Cox, have scored 72 wins against 11 defeats in the past few years, an average of .867.

TENNIS

For the first time in eight years, Byrd sponsored a tennis team. The group, composed of John King, John Shaw, Kenneth Wagstaff, Lou Ann Hayes, Betty Ann Jouett, and Ann Phillips, won matches opposite Fair Park, Minden, Homer, Bolton, and Longview.

At the North Louisiana Rally, held in Ruston by Louisiana Tech, the Yellow Jacket team copped four out of five first places.

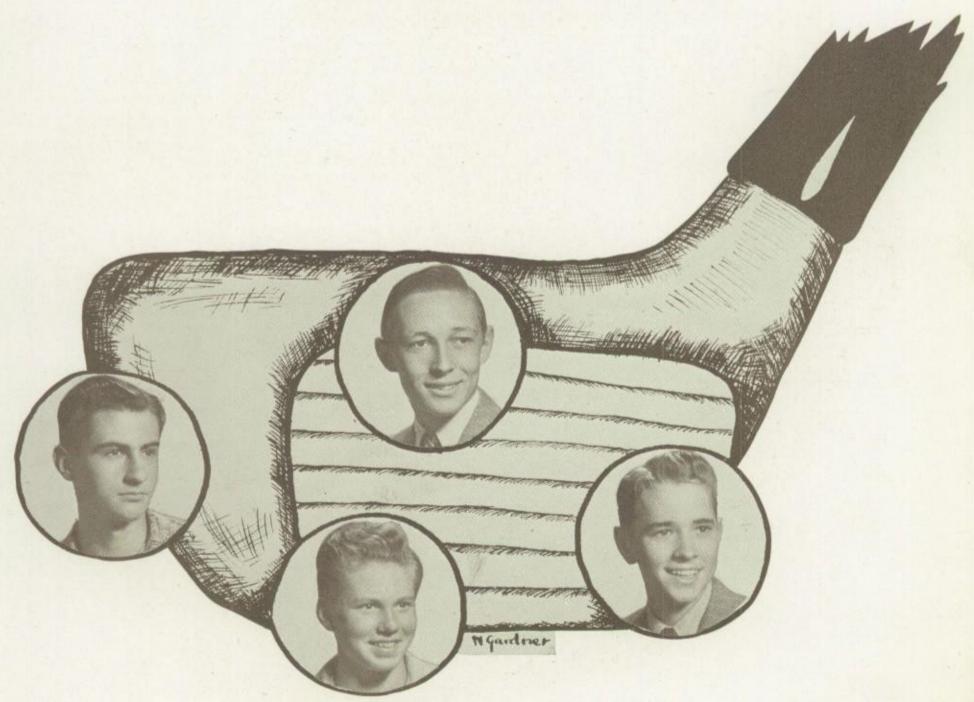

Climaxing the outstanding season was the state tournament played at L. S. U. Here the Byrd players exhibited their finest form of the season, and placed second in the Girls' Doubles. Betty Ann Jouett and Lou Ann Hayes were defeated by the hard-playing Cottonwood team in the last of a three-game set by a breath-taking score of 9-7.

GOLF

In the spring of 1948 a man with ideas and a heart full of courage and confidence took charge of the newly formed golf team of Byrd and shaped them into a championship team. The man was Mr. Jones, assistant principal of Byrd. The members of his first team were Billy Taylor, George Alleman, Jerry Winston, Tommy Morrow, Jimmy Sippel, Claude DeBeaux, Archie Haynes, Jack Tullos, Edgar Carter, and Marion Shirah.

The Byrd team received an invitation to play in the state high school golf rally held in Baton Rouge. There they eliminated such stellar opponents as Jesuit and Baton Rouge. The Byrd team, sparked by Tommy Morrow and efficiently backed by Jimmy Sippel, George Alleman, and Jerry Winston, won the state championship on the final day of the tournament. Not only did they win the team championship, but the individual championship as well. Members of the winning foursome were Tommy Morrow, Jimmy Sippel, George Alleman, and Jerry Winston, taking the honors with the low score of 324 for 36 holes. Extra honors went to team captain Tommy Morrow for winning the individual championship by a score of 77-80 for a total of 157, and to team-mate Jimmy Sippel who took second place with 80-78 for a total of 170.

NATIONAL HONOR

THE GROVER C. KOFFMAN CHAPTER—that's the name of the school's honor organization as planned by the Class of '48. The name was adopted because the members wanted to honor our Principal, Mr. Grover C. Koffman, whose untiring efforts in behalf of the pupils of Byrd have been outstanding through the years of his service in Shreveport. He stands for scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Among the major projects of the organization is that of the Annual Recognition Service to honor those pupils of Byrd who have given time and effort for the betterment of their school. These students are chosen by the faculty and honored in a special assembly.

The 1949 project for the group is that of presenting outstanding men and women of achievement for assembly speakers. Dr. Bodeau, President of the University of Cairo, Egypt, was presented on February 10 in Byrd Auditorium.

It is the purpose of this organization to create an enthusiasm for "Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service."

RED CROSS COUNCIL

Junior Red Cross Pledge

We believe in service for others,
For our country, our community, and our school;
In health of mind and body to fit us for greater service,
And for better human relations throughout the world.
We have joined the American Junior Red Cross
To help achieve its aims by working together
With members everywhere in our own and other lands.

The Junior Red Cross motto, "We Serve," has inspired the Byrd Council to do much work this year. The year's work began with the supper meeting at Princess Park and the forming of a parish-wide council. The annual faculty tea, making of the faculty directory and student directory, and the packing of sixty-seven gift boxes for children overseas kept the council busy before the Christmas holidays. Also twelve writing boards for veterans' hospitals, thirty-five paintings under the direction of Miss Lawrence to be sent overseas, fifty Halloween nut cups, fifty Easter candy cups, and twenty-seven Christmas card scrapbooks were made before Christmas. After mid-term a varsity show was sponsored by the Red Cross, a collection of toys for the toy loans was made, a one-hundred-dollar scholarship was awarded to a deserving senior, and two hundred dollars was sent to the National Children's Fund. Plans are now being made to send a delegate to the National Convention this summer in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Endeavoring to relieve the widely publicized teacher shortage by encouraging more Byrd students to enter this profession, the Future Teachers' Club was organized in February, 1947. The club is affiliated with the Future Teachers of America and is sponsored by Miss Irma Robinson. Regular meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

Highlighting last year's activities was a trip to Werner Park Grammar School to observe teaching methods used there. A tea given for the club by Miss Robinson and Mrs. M. E. Hurlbut, president of the local Delta Kappa Gamma chapter, brought the year to a pleasant close.

The Future Teachers' main project for this year was to try to inspire the organization of sister clubs in this area. Mr. Koffman has given the members permission during their study halls and study rooms to substitute in classes wherever they may be needed and wanted.

FOUR-H CLUB

The 4-H Club, nine times Caddo Parish champion and sponsored by Mr. R. A. Smith, Miss Eleanor Blatterman, and Mrs. Evora Ferguson, is one of the most active organizations at Byrd and one of the leading state clubs. "To make the best better" is the aim of the 4-H clubs, whose influence is not merely local, but national and international as well. Paul Turner, David McConnell, Larry McGowan, Charles Smith, Jackie Robinson, Louis Austin Campbell, Lee Popejoy, Sammy Raines, Robert Porter, and Leroy Gillan examine plant life in garden procedure study.

The theme that threads itself through all 4H work is:

I pledge my head to clearer thinking,

My heart to greater loyalty, My hands to better service,

And my health to better living for my club, my community, my country, and my world.

The membership of the National Forensic League is composed of students who rank in the upper two-thirds of their classes, and who have won twenty points in speech work through inter-school competition. To further interest in speech activities and associated endeavors is the initial purpose of the group.

This year, as in the past, the National Forensic League has had representatives at tournaments in Waco, Texas; Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Natchitoches, Louisiana; Dallas, Texas, and Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Not only that, but the chapter sponsored the Byrd High School Tournament in the spring, which was the largest held in the entire state.

This year the Girls' Debate Club has had the largest membership in the club's history. Approximately sixty girls have taken advantage of the club's purpose to promote and develop all forms of public speaking. Meetings are held weekly with programs consisting of panel discussions, book reports, extemporaneous speaking, radio programs, parliamentary law drills, poetry, declamations, and debates.

Many entertaining and interesting programs have been conducted by the officers and members with the helpful guidance of their sponsor, Mrs. Jessica Goodwin.

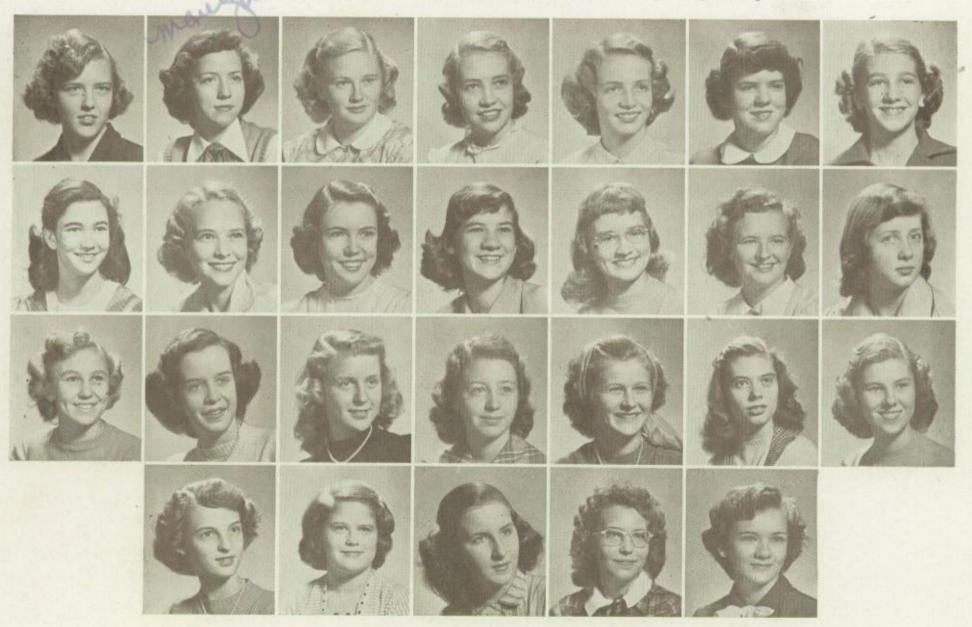

At the close of school in the spring a banquet is always held which is the most outstanding event of the year. At this time the officers for the following year are initiated, the outstanding members of the year are presented, and the president gives a memorable farewell address. The banquet closes the season's debate work.

THE LIBRARY CLUB

Organized in January of 1948, the Library Club is relatively new at Byrd. The objectives of the club are to improve library service within the school, to stimulate reading interests, and to know each other in a social way. Membership is limited to the personnel of the student library staff. The club is sponsored by Miss Mildred Mobley.

The library staff gave a program tea for the faculty of Byrd during Book Week, which was in November. The library endeavors to serve the students and faculty to the best of its ability, and the Library Club works toward that objective.

Le Cercle Francais, one of the oldest organizations in Byrd High School, founded in 1921 by Mrs. Valentine Smith, was formed for the purpose of giving the students a better understanding of the French language and to promote a greater interest in this study.

All meetings held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month are conducted in French; therefore, membership is limited to those who are studying or have studied the language. Many interesting programs are planned and presented by the students under the very capable and assiduous sponsorship of Mlle. Marie Therese LeBlanc. The programs consist of short plays, skits, songs, and games. In December the Club was privileged to have as guest speaker Mr. Herbert Smith, a former member of Le Cercle Francais, who studied in France for a year at the Sorbonne.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club was organized with the purpose of furthering the knowledge of science. The membership consists of those students who have taken biology, chemistry, or physics and who have a C average or better.

The Science Club has had an active and successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Emma L. Stringfellow.

Aside from the regular meetings, demonstrations, and experiments sponsored by the club, members enjoy the affiliation of the Byrd Chapter with both the Science Club of America and the Louisiana Academy of Science. The Club sponsors the Annual Westinghouse Talent search and every year there are those who take active interest in it.

At a meeting of the Louisiana Academy of Science at New Orleans Bob Dorvitt was elected President of the State group and Logan Damewood was elected Vice-President.

P. A. S. F. MEMBERS

- 1. Proposito del Club: Conocer mejor a las Americas.
- 2. Colores del Club: azul y blanco.
- 3. Lema del Club: El respeto al derecho ajeno es la paz.

Students in the first and second year Spanish classes are eligible for membership in the local units of the Pan-American Student Forum. Meetings are held twice a month. On the birthday of the Club, April 3, the annual banquet at El Patio has become a custom. A big birthday cake in PASF colors adds to the anticipation of the banquet.

Another traditional program is the breaking of a Pinata at Christmas time. At least one program each term is devoted entirely to the singing of Spanish songs, and programs of Spanish games always prove entertaining. Fortunately for students of Spanish, there are in our city a number of people from Spanish-American countries. They gladly and graciously serve as guest speakers on some of our programs.

OFFICERS AND SPONSORS CLUB

The Officers' and Sponsors' Club of C. E. Byrd High School was organized in 1936 for the purpose of working for the interests and betterment of the R.O.T.C.

The club meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

This organization encourages the spirit of cooperation of the cadets and their officers. Along with social activities the club has done social service work this year in the form of a Christmas box for a needy family, funds raised for the Kiwanis summer camp, and participation in the Chamber of Commerce Christmas parade by the sponsors.

The Officers and Sponsors also took part in an "arch of steel" at the wedding of Sgt. Robert C. Tate and Miss Marlene B. Thurmond.

UPPER LATIN FORUM

The Latin Club, one of the largest and oldest organizations in Byrd, was founded in 1925 by Miss Hetty Ecker. With the increased number of Latin students the club was divided into two parts in 1939. The Lower Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Irma Robinson, is for those students studying first year Latin. The Upper Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Hetty Ecker, is composed of pupils from second, third, and fourth-year classes, or any pupil who has had at least two years of Latin. Both organizations are patterned on the old Roman government. The main officers are two consuls, who serve as presiding officers; a scriba, who keeps the records of meetings and attends to correspondence; a quaestor, who attends to all financial matters; and a tribune, who keeps order. The programs consist of interesting studies from Roman History and Literature, in addition to plays, music, skits, and contests in both Latin and English. The year's activity is highlighted by an annual banquet at the close of school. The club has grown so much that today there are between seventy-five and one hundred members in each club, each trying to live up to the club's motto "Excelsior."

Any girl who is interested in various sports and recreational activities is entitled to become a member of the Girls' Sports Club. The purpose of this club is to promote sportsmanship, wholesome recreation, and leadership. The Third Annual Play Day, in which other schools in the city were invited to take part, was the most important project of the group this year. Awards were presented to the team having the most points after having participated in volleyball, softball, and the sack race.

An award is given each year to an "outstanding girl." This honor is given to the senior who has best fulfilled the ideals of this club.

These senior girls were a few of the ones participating in a program of original dances for the Girls' Sports Club. It was "Begin the Beguine" that inspired Lenora Armstrong and Dorothy Jones to do an original dance using variations of the Rhumba step. Anne Warren and Helen Harris were snapped doing their version of the Charleston step to the tune of "Wait Til the Sun Shines, Nellie." There were fast moving feet when the music "Cotton Eyed Joe" was played for Eleanor Franks and Bettie Duncan.

PREDICTIONS

Class of 1949

By Scott Foster Scott Forter

Gene Barry and Jane Barry: Will take a "Slow Boat to China" and will then be referred to as the "China Barrys."

Margie Daniel, Martha Ann Moore, Doris Ocker, and Alicia Smith: I hear that they are all going to dye their hair, but, of course, it's a top secret.

George Alleman: You know when you push a button to turn on the light? Well, George will be the little guy inside who pushes the other button out.

Martha Senter: Will always be able to play a little piano, and who knows? Maybe after some practice, she'll be able to play a big one.

John Carter, Anthony Wolfe, and Braxton Ratcliff: Will work over thousands of people; they'll be graveyard attendants.

Sue Pinson: Will have to stop drinking coffee as it is keeping her awake during classes.

Harvey Sayes, Donald Catalano, and David Johnston: Will be eye doctors in florist shops; they'll take care of the black-eyed susans.

Annie Lou Webb: Will always be a Southern Belle with a terrific drawling power.

Kaye Brock: Will be a candy bar manufacturer.

Bill Callahan: Will become famous as Inspector Callahan of Homicide.

Barbara Lee Miller, Bob Miller, Corrine Miller, Lona Miller, and Pat Miller: Will form a corporation and manufacture dog food containing calcium, potassium, uranium, penicillin, sodium aseedle salicylate, and vitamins A, B-1, B-2, C, D-1, D-2, D-3, D-782, and E-1/2.

Connie Entrikin: Will produce Crunchy Crunchy Toenail Corn Flakes, the cereal that does not snap, crackle, nor pop; it just lies there.

Barbara Ellis: For details on her future see Joe Bob Alexander.

Hazel Hall, Marie Hamel, Mary Ellen Hancox, Judy Hanner, and Helen Harris: I can see it now, "Hall, Hamel, Hanner, Harris, and Hancox, handy hospitable handlers of Hadacol and handsome healthy halibuts."

Al Dietz, Reber Dillard, and Robert Taliaferro: Will come up with the drink of the century Graduates for 62 years have learned that you can SHOP at SEARS and SAVE.

These boys will become famous as members of the "Harrison Gang." When they're only nineteen they'll start swiping small change. When they're twenty they will start lifting wallets. When they are twenty-one they'll be holding up banks; and by the time they are twenty-two—I can see it now; the crowd cheering and yelling, when, into the middle of Yankee Stadium steps the Harrison mob saying, "Dis is a holdup; everybody reach fer da sky!"

Anita Dupree: A future female private eye; also ears, nose, and throat. (She puts everything into her work.)

Fielder Calhoun: Will invent a sardine can that can't be opened for people who don't like sardines.

Marie Tilleux, Lilia Valentine, Mercer Wade, Ray Kightlinger, and Jen Lashley: All of these poor souls will be trapped in a forest fire; boy, will they make fuels of themselves!

Barbara Ann and Norma Jean Locke: Will always be bothered by people wondering which twin has the Toni.

Ann Hatcher: Must live in a suit case; yes, she will just have to get a grip on herself.

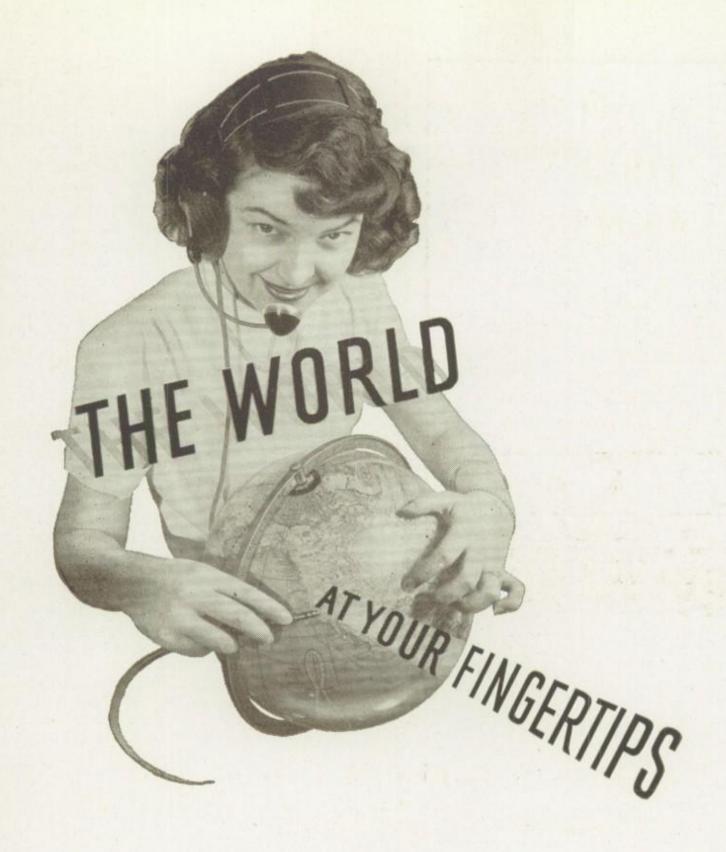

Tolbert Travis: Will be the flower of his family, a blooming idiot.

Lawrence Gilbert and Fred Meadows: Will be first and second vice-presidents of the First National Bank, in charge of liquid assets; they will fill the ink wells.

Mary Ethlyn Smith, Nancy Smith, and Mary Elise Smith: An advertisement of the future: "Use Smith's Bird Gravel, containing dynamite. Give your canary a real bang."

John Goff: Will never be able to stand on his head; it is too high up.

Marilyn Vaught, Jimmy Rosenbloom, and Barbara Reid and Irene Newcombe: Will be the producers of Shnook, the only product for which there is absolutely no use.

Grace Grainger: Will be an authority on fishin', salt water, fresh water, and nuclear.

Ava Jane Martin, Mary Ann Thomas, Charlyn Hutchison, Barbara Turner, and Dorothy Roberts: Will be members of a sewing circle. This should prove very interesting because I've never seen a circle who could sew.

Charlene Udes, Edith Ritman, and Marjorie Mason: Will be waitresses and sell pie "a la mode," "a la carte," and "a la bamy bound."

Jessie Gowan, Carolyn Jones, and Manie Langford: Will be the producers of Fungus Perfumes, including "Passion," "Burning Passion," "Super Passion," and "Stop Already."

Margaret Claire Smithe: Will relieve the strain on the government by printing her own money in the attic.

Nancy Gardner and Billie Lippman: Will be artists; in other words, a pair of drawers.

Betty Whitney, Faylene Weeks, Betty Goyne, and Ruth Harber: Will be lady barbers; ah, yes, quite the cut-ups.

Ernestine Holt, Dorothy Jones, and Audrey Langer: Will be the writers of those three sentimental ballads, "Drop Dead," "Fall Fatally," and "You Should Live So Long."

Barbara Murphy: Will be the chief herring salter at Fulton's Fish Market.

Gloria Simpson, Joyce Sprague, Mary Coddington, and Bill Davis: Will work for a deodorant company, but remember, Mum's the word.

Anne Connaughton: Will produce a throat spray for frogs who get human beings in their throats.

Mary Touchstone, Margaret Sloane, and Joyce Rambin: Will move to Spain where they'll probably become si sick.

Harry Fox, Buckie Hooper, Dick Murray, and Roy Dean Owen: These fellas will all be prize fighters. The fact is they'll spend more time on the canvas than Whistler's Mother.

Rita Jo Kelly, and Martha McIlnay: Will work for the government and issue fishing licenses, although frankly, I've never seen a fish that had one.

Ann Hutchinson: Wants to be a psychiatrist,

Adrienne Kalmbach: Will be an artist and draw flies.

Jimmy Anderson: Will attempt to fly around the world, and if that doesn't work, he'll take a plane.

Lenora Armstrong: Will get rich selling Updock. What's Updock? Updock is the soap containing helium. It doesn't sink, it doesn't float, it just hovers there above the tub.

Spevens Rosenblath, Bill Peacock, and Clifford Neilson: Will be doctors in a glass factory; they'll take care of the window pains.

Mary Ann Wall: Will manufacture and sell her own brand of paper, Wall paper, of course.

Eleanor Franks: Will suffer a great deal at the hands of people who like to sit around a campfire and roast Franks.

Sue Richardson: Will have three children, Eeny, Meeny, and Miney. After that she won't want any Moe.

Patricia Givens, Rosemary Lewis, Billy Mitchell, and Mary Ponsell: Will raise chickens; a pretty fowl business, I'd say.

DeLane Smith, Gussie Goldfinger, Eunice Holland, and Bobby Knight: Will get in the sugar business and raise cane.

Forest Ford, Billy Harrington, Perry Hollembeak, Leland Langridge, Billy Pennington, and Marvin Lipson: Will move to the Ozark Mountains and make hay while the sun shines and moonshine when it doesn't.

Virginia Alexander: Will organize a band which will be known as "Alexander's Rag Time Band."

Betty Ann Hill: Will change her name from Betty Ann to Mole; then everybody will try to make a mountain out of her.

Joe Stell and Ralph Ezelle: Will manage a hospital for poor pink elephants who keep seeing drunk humans.

Myra Parkes: Will meet a tall, dark, and handsome man; Myra goes out with the tall, dark, and handsome man; Myra Parkes.

James A. Jolley: Will keep in touch with the heads of several big concerns. Yes, he will be a barber.

Emma Aura: Will be an editor of a newspaper with invisible type for people who never read the papers.

Yin Wong: Will manage a laundry.

Alvin Phillips: Will save a lot of lives at Byrd; he will shoot the cook.

Jenny Clay: Her name will be mud.

Dick Young: Will be an elevator boy. Naturally, he will have his ups and downs.

Rosalind Cook: Rosalind will visit a South Sea Island; Rosalind will meet some cannibals; Rosalind Cook.

Ralph White: He won't know what happiness is until he is married; then it will be too late. Ann Nivens: Will develop a snap dragon that also crackles and pops.

Russell McDonald: Will have a farm, eei, eei, oh! With a quack, quack, here; quack, quack, there; here a quack, there a—wrong act.

BEST WISHES FOR THE FUTURE

PACKARD SHREVEPORT COMPANY

John Robinson: Will be a band leader; the greatest since Jesse James.

Marie Andrews: Will be an actress and draw lines three blocks long in front of the theater, that is, until the cops take the chalk away from her.

Cecil Neilson: Will make millions with his replacement for handkerchiefs—a small fan attached to your head. All you have to do is just pull the switch and let the wind blow your nose.

M. K. Woolbert: Will swallow a handgrenade and continue to shoot off his big mouth.

Robert Barnett: Will be a doorman and answer the door—every time it asks a question.

Tommy Baumgardner: Will work in a blanket factory; he will be the undercover man.

Delilah Austin: Will store razor blades in the deep freeze and then clean up selling cold-cuts.

David Moore: Will have a job equal to his intelligence; he will work in a domino factory, making blanks.

Logan Damewood: Will be a dancing instructor; of course, he will have to learn to take it on the shin.

Claude DeBeaux: Will get a job sticking his right arm into a lion's mouth. Shortly afterwards he will change his name to "Lefty."

Tommy Bigner: Will serve time for taking apples off a peddler's cart (impersonation of an officer).

Mary Frances Collins: Will be a bathing beauty, a girl worth wading for.

Bettie Ann Bauguss: Will be a cross-eyed teacher and have difficulty controlling her pupils.

Joy Bickham: Will go down in history for her brilliant idea of how to keep skunks from smelling—cut off their noses.

Walter Bison: Will win the Nobel Prize for his great work of literature, "The Termite's 1235 Texas Avenue Shreveport Nightmare" or, "I Dreamt I Dwelled in Marble Halls."

Wendla Bjorklund: Will write "her books" for churches tired of singing from hymn books.

Bobby Madden: Will build a factory and manufacture second-hand cars. He will be known as "Mad Man Madden."

Jackie Rust: Will be a poet and go from bad to verse.

John R. Whyte: Will be a street musician in down-town Shreveport. He will either C sharp or B flat.

Albert Francis: Will be hired by the U.S. government to teach its governors and senators the correct way to play the guitar.

John Shaw: Will move to Rhode Island and turn Communist; yes, he'll be a regular Rhode Island Red.

Barbara Chapman and Beatrice Churchill: Taken from a paper of the future: "Churchill and Chapman, Chinese Checker Champs, challenged the Choosey Checker Champ of Chattanooga and Charleston; but the Charleston Checker Champ charged Churchill and Chapman of cheating. Chapman chunked a checker at the Chattanooga Champ's chinett."

Henry Clay Calhoun: Will sell fur coats for only $40. How? By elimination of the overhead, doing away with the middle man, and not advertising. Also, he'll swipe the coats. Martha Burgess: Will perfect a spot remover that removes spots left over from other spot removers.

William Bruce: Will cross a homing pigeon with a woodpecker; not only will it deliver the message but it will also knock on the door.

Lewis Weinstein: Will manufacture square bathtubs. With these tubs it will be impossible for you to leave a ring.

Ray Weimer: Will be a labor leader in a fence factory; he will be in charge of the pickets.

Scott Foster: My lawyers (bless their little wooden heads) tell me that after this my only chance for survival is to plead insanity. But I'm not crazy, no. My father was crazy and my mother was crazy but not me; I'm a street car named "de liar." Later on I may sell bubble gum, sort of a mouth-to-mouth salesman. However, the bubble gum business is liable to blow up in my face, so as a sideline I think I'll be the President or an admiral or general or maybe just a millionaire.

Note: Any resemblance between these predictions and the actual truth is not only purely coincidental but downright ridiculous.

Dear Paul,

Looking tack over the past year it seems impossible to put down all the wonderful times we have had together. From football games, (with that first bet), dances, backwards dates, providing fights, and even our squabbles came out o.k. The wer to forget betoser 28th, and many little details that are frogetin except when you look fack over the year. It surely will seem awful to go tack next year and know that you won't be walking through the halls, but I know that you will be crasy about college, as college will be crasy about you, where ever you go and whower you much, they will all say as I do; you're swell!

In about eight to ten years I'll be looking for that PHD. you know that I will alway a be pulling for you sto a hard road, but you, above all, will make it.
